REGISTRATION FORM (Page 2)

We will run three hour-long breakout sessions during the workshop. Please let us know your top four preferences (number 1 – 4 in order of preference).

_____ Writing for Publication: The Basics: Learn how to prepare and submit a manuscript, and how to look at the market and decide what and where to submit. A place for everyone, including beginners, to ask questions.

_____ One-on-one Meetings with Mary Lou Redding. Share something you've written or seek advice on your writing in a 15-minute appointment. Space is limited, so only available to those who register the earliest.

_____ Spiritual Journaling: Learn techniques for journaling your time with God and discover a new conversation. Something for those new to journaling as well as experienced journal writers.

_____ Devotional Writing and Editing: Speaking Your Heart in 250 Words or Less: Explore methods of crafting and editing a concise narrative essay or devotional.

_____ Magazine Writing:How To Write Articles That Sell!: Learn what it takes to become a writer editors want. From regional and national periodicals to ministry web sites, editors need writers who can deliver timely, well-researched articles on deadline. Practical tips and proven strategies.

_____ Writing as a Ministry/Telling Your Story: "In the beginning ... (insert your story here)." God is alive in the story of your life. Discover how.

_____ God Moments: Grow in awareness of God's touch on all the moments of your day.

_____ Poetry: Embrace the gift of grace in image and form.

_____ Healing Through Prayer Writing: Drawing closer to God through prayer and reflection, hearing God through His Word.

_____ Creative Non-Fiction. Work toward your memoir, devotional or narrative story.
